The International Festival of Fine Arts and Photography "BEAUTY OF THE COSTA BRAVA" takes place on the picturesque Costa Brava. Costa Brava means "wild coast" in Spanish. Its coastal ensemble is made up of picturesque rocky cliffs, interspersed with small bays and beaches.

The depth of the sea usually begins as early as a dozen meters from the shore. The region borders France, and its Mediterranean coast is bounded to the north and south by the resort areas of Costa Brava and Costa Dorada. On the border with France, in the town of Figueres, there is the Salvador Dali House Museum.

For many artists, the visual arts competition is a unique opportunity to be inspired by the beauty of the Mediterranean and to present their artwork for an international audience. Therefore, finding sponsors who can support young talents might be a great option to make this dream come true.

It is also a photography contest, which allows photographers to show their creativity and gather material for new artworks. The exchange of experience among creative people always creates strong relationships for years. Competitive artworks are evaluated by a professional international jury according to expert evaluation criteria.
